Trainer

K. SUPPRAAMANEAM KAT, MBA, B.Sc. (Sec Mgmt), is a retired military officer with rank of Major. He has served the Royal Malaysian Air Force for 27 years as an Air Defence Controller dealing with the National Airspace Security Management. Whilst in the military, he has attended various training programs both local and overseas in administrative, management, core specialization, military warfare and training skills. Notably, he has attended Instructor Training program at the United States Naval Air Station at San Diego, California. In addition, he has attended basic aviation safety and fire training seminars and programs.

He has obtained vast managerial and administrative experience in the military as an officer through the assumption of incremental responsibilities which commensurate with the rank. Besides assuming teaching assignments at various intervals, he has also held various command and leadership positions during the entire tour of his career. Has conducted multi-discipline (management, security, safety and fire) training programs/seminars while serving the Air Force and Commercial organizations.

Adding to the above, professionally he has equipped himself with a Masters in Business Administration and Bachelor of Science in Security Management. He is also an endorsed security trainer from the Ministry of Home Affairs for the private security industry. Since retiring from the military in 1997, he has engaged himself with the private security industry in managing security operations, conduct various security training programs and soft skill management programs (endorsed by HRDF, Ministry of Human Resources), conduct security investigations and risk assessment activities.
As an accomplished trainer and facilitator, he has conducted various in-house security training for many multi-national organizations. He has also presented papers on Loss Prevention, Security Risk Assessment and Security Technologies at various forums and seminars conducted by the Asian Institute of Management Science (AIMS Sdn Bhd). In addition, he also lectures in Security diploma and degree programs organized by AIMS Sdn Bhd.

His military and commercial world experience had provided him opportunities to collaborate with international organizations such as Marconi Radar Systems, UK., Laker Airways, Florida, USA., and International Executive Protection Services, New York, USA., in project management, aviation security and risk assessment assignments.

His background and experiences bring demonstrated expertise in project management, security training and consultancy to major private security companies and multi-national organizations.
