

Carbon Accounting and Policy Trends: Navigating Carbon Tax and CBAM

January 7, 2026 | Wednesday
8.30am - 5.00pm
FMM Selangor & Kuala Lumpur

Introduction

This one-day training provides participants with a comprehensive understanding of carbon accounting, the evolving regulatory landscape, and key policies driving the global transition toward sustainability. The course will cover essential concepts of carbon footprint measurement and management, offering practical insights into calculating and reducing greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions for organisations.

Participants will gain in-depth knowledge of trending topics such as carbon taxes, the Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism (CBAM), and their implications for businesses in both local and international markets. Real-world case studies and interactive sessions will equip attendees with actionable strategies to align their operations with emerging compliance requirements, minimize risks, and leverage opportunities in a carbon-conscious economy.

Learning Outcomes
