MANUFACTURING SST FORUM 2026

Navigating Compliance, Unlocking Incentives & Preparing for Malaysia's Next Tax Evolution

24 NOVEMBER 2026

9 AM - 1 PM

SWISS AVENUE HOTEL
Sungai Petani

Course Overview

Malaysia's indirect tax landscape is evolving, with industry stakeholders including FMM advocating selected GST features to enhance the current SST framework and strengthen business competitiveness. Against this backdrop, the Manufacturing SST Forum & Industry Dialogue 2026 brings together manufacturers, policymakers and key government agencies to discuss the latest SST developments, compliance challenges, investment opportunities and the future direction of Malaysia's tax landscape, while providing a platform for direct industry-government engagement.

Objectives

- Better understand SST compliance requirements and current regulatory expectations for manufacturers.
- Identify available exemptions and facilitation mechanisms relating to raw materials, components, machinery and equipment.
- Understand available investment incentives and expansion-related support offered through MIDA and other agencies.
- Gain visibility into Kedah's manufacturing development plans and future industrial opportunities.
- Better appreciate current discussions surrounding Malaysia's indirect tax landscape and potential developments.
- Share operational concerns and recommendations directly with regulators and policymakers.
- Strengthen collaboration between industry and government agencies to improve Malaysia's manufacturing competitiveness.

Target Group

Managing Directors & CEOs, Business Owners, General Managers, CFOs & Finance Directors, Finance & Accounts Managers, Tax & SST Personnel, Customs & Trade Compliance Teams, Plant & Factory Managers, Supply Chain & Procurement Managers, Logistics & Warehouse Personnel, Import & Export Teams, Internal Audit & Compliance Officers, Business Development & Investment Teams, Manufacturers planning expansion, reinvestment, automation or capital expenditure projects
